

Publications on Citrus Heights History

(All publications are held in the Citrus Heights Archives)

Amioka, Ann, "Citrus Heights Community Club: How a Volunteer Organization Filled Social and Civic Roles to Provide Services Not Available From Organized Government", Citrus Heights Historical Society, 2009.

Amioka, Ann, "The Van Marens vs. The Johnsons: A Small Step Ahead for Women's Rights", California State University, Sacramento, ca. 1990s.

Amioka, Ann, "The Van Maren Family: A History in Citrus Heights", Van Maren Family Trust, ca. 1995.

Churchill, Robert A. "The History of Citrus Heights Water District", Presented to the Sylvan Old Auburn Road Neighborhood Association, May 21, 2007.

Cityhood! Celebrate Citrus Heights. 10 Year Anniversary Celebration, 1997-2007. City of Citrus Heights, 2007.

Cross, Lillian, "Sylvan Recollection: A History of the Sylvan District, Sacramento, County, California", March 1943. Copyright in question but possibly 'given' to the Sunrise Recreation and Park District.

Davis, Leonard and Van Maren, James, "A Historical Overview of the Evolution of Citrus Heights, 1850-1997, Citrus Heights Historical Society, 1998.

Davis, Leonard and Van Maren, James, "From Mexican Land Grant to a New Modern City...Citrus Heights".

Davis, Leonard, "The Historic Sacramento-Auburn Road – From Miners' Trail to Interstate Freeway", November 1975.

Giusti, Roeley, "A Century of History", Citrus Heights Historical Society, 1994-95.

Giusti, Roeley, "A Century of History 2", Citrus Heights Historical Society, 2010.

Giusti, Roeley, "Walking From Sylvan to Citrus Heights, 1860-1960", Citrus Heights Historical Society.

Hack, Catherine. "A History of the Orangevale Community". Environmental Impact Section, County of Sacramento, CA, 1988.

Historic Resources Associates, "History of the Mitchell Family of Citrus Heights, California, Sacramento County, California", Watt Communities, 2016.

Mandelberg, Nancy. "Van Maren's Roots Remain Entrenched in Citrus Heights." Discover Citrus Heights, 1999, 22-23.

McBride, Larry and Janie, "The Heart of the Heat: I Did It My Way." November 2, 2013.

Millette, Gertrude, "Citrus Heights: 1850-1950", Roseville Press Tribune, March 31, 1951, pg. 4.

Napoli, Donald S. State Historic Resources Inventory for the Rusch Home, Sylvan School, and the Fourteen Mile House. City of Citrus Heights, 2002.

Peak and Associates, Inc. 14 Mile House, City of Citrus Heights, 2011. (Prepared for the California State Department of Parks and Recreation, California Point of Historical Interest; designated May 2012.)

Poulsen, Debbie. "The Citrus Heights Ladies Auxiliary: Women Fire Fighters, 1940-1950", Masters Thesis, California State University, Sacramento, 2007. Rights to copy and distribute for educational purposes held jointly with the City of Citrus Heights, California.

Roland, Carol, "Historic Resources Context: City of Citrus Heights", City of Citrus Heights, November 2006.

Stern, Teena and Fellos, Alice. The Ladies Auxiliary and Ladies in White: Pioneering Female Firefighters in Citrus Heights, A Photographic History. City of Citrus Heights, 2013.

Van Maren, Jim, "Image of America: Citrus Heights". South Carolina: Arcadia Publishing, 2011.

"The Beginning of San Juan High School in Citrus Heights". Collection of clippings (1913-16) compiled by James Van Maren.

For access to these publications please contact city staff, Haley Reid at (916)727-4732 or hreid@citrusheights.net
Updated November 2016